FOUNDATION

JOIN THE
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

We're always excited to speak to prospective board members who are interested in joining Friends of the Animal Center Foundation (FACF). Being a board member means committing to help advance FACF's primary mission of supporting the Iowa City Animal Care & Adoption Center and other area animal welfare initiatives.

We ask each board member to contribute in several ways:

FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTION

No minimum donation amount is required; we only ask that each board member make a contribution that is meaningful to them.

EVENT PARTICIPATION

Attend most FACF events and (when applicable) fulfill your assigned duties and responsibilities for each event, as determined during the event planning process.

MEETINGS & COMMITTEES

Attend monthly board meetings. In addition, sit on one or more of our board committees:

COMMUNICATIONS - reviews outgoing communications and oversees marketing efforts for FACF.

EVENTS - plans and oversees the execution of all FACF events.

FINANCE - reviews FACF finances and drafts yearly budgets for full board approval.

GRANT REVIEW - reviews grant applications received for FACF's Community Giving program.

OPERATIONS - oversees FACF's operating processes and procedures; nominates and vets board and committee candidates.

“ I joined the FACF Board of Directors for the opportunity to serve my community and support a cause that I am passionate about. I'm grateful to have met and worked closely with others who share my love for animals and who work tirelessly to champion FACF's mission. ”

~ Kelly Carr, Director of the Board 2021
